The ICC T20 WC 2024 Trophy embarked on a global journey, spreading the excitement and anticipation for the grandest T20I event so far. The tour kicked off in the bustling city of New York, where the iconic Empire State Building was lit up to celebrate the occasion. Cricket enthusiasts gathered to catch a glimpse of the coveted trophy, marking the first time an ICC tournament would be held in the United States.

The trophy then made its way to Argentina, where it was displayed in the heart of Buenos Aires. The tour aimed to foster greater interest in the sport and create a buzz around the upcoming tournament. Next, the trophy visited Brazil, captivating fans in the vibrant city of Rio de Janeiro. The West Indies, a cricketing powerhouse, welcomed the trophy with open arms. The tour made stops in Jamaica, Barbados, Antigua and Barbuda, and Saint Lucia, where cricket fans were treated to the sight of the trophy. The iconic Kensington Oval in Barbados and the Sir

Vivian Richards Stadium in Antigua and Barbuda played host to the trophy, while the Daren Sammy National Cricket Stadium in Saint Lucia added to the excitement.

The trophy's journey then led it to Pakistan, where it was displayed at the National Assembly in Islamabad. Cricket-loving fans eagerly awaited the opportunity to see the trophy up close, as the tour aimed to strengthen the sport's presence in the country.

The tour's final stop was in the West Indies, where the trophy made an appearance at the National Stadium in Guyana. This stop was a fitting conclusion to the tour, as the West Indies has a rich cricketing heritage and a passionate fan base.
